Getting here by Wheel-Trans

Getting here by GO Train

The closest GO Station to 401 Richmond is Union Station. You can use the GO website to plan your route.

From Union Station, it is about a 25 minute walk to 401 Richmond, or 15 minutes on the TTC.

To get to 401 Richmond from Union Station, exit from the North doors onto Front Street. Walk West on Front Street to University Avenue. Turn right to walk North up University Avenue until you hit Richmond Street. Turn left to walk West down Richmond Street. 401 Richmond will be on your left, on the South side of the street, almost at Spadina Avenue.

Alternatively, you could also exit Union Station onto Front Street and travel West on Front Street until you come to Spadina Avenue. Turn right on Spadina and walk North until you hit Richmond. On Richmond, turn right and you will be at the North-West entrance of 401 Richmond.

Getting here by Car

401 Richmond Street West is located on Richmond Street just East of Spadina Avenue. Please note that Richmond Street runs one way going west. The building does not offer visitor or free parking at any time. All spaces are reserved for tenants; we suggest a number of parking lots in the immediate area, including one at 355 Adelaide St W, and Green P Lot 106 at 15 Denison Ave.

Getting here by Bike

The building can be accessed via the Adelaide bike lane running east, or the Richmond bike lane running west. There are bike racks at both the front and back entrances of the building, and in the basement (please note: the basement bike racks require you to put bike racks up on its rear wheel, so it is not fully accessible for everyone).

Peter Street Entrance

The basement level entrance to the 401 Richmond building is near the intersection of Peter and Richmond St. The entrance has doors and windows made of glass. A push button for the automatic door and intercom is located to the left of the doorways.

This entrance is on the basement level of the building and Tangled Art Gallery is located on the Ground floor. To get to the elevator for the first floor, you will pass the coffee shop at the end of the ramp and travel down a long hallway until you see a green elevator door to your left. To the left of the elevator are signs that reads “what keeps a street active.”

Take the elevator to the main floor marked “G”. When exiting the elevator, turn right and go down the hallway until you reach a set of signs directing you towards Tangled, and turn right again down another hallway. At the end of this hallway is Tangled Art Gallery.

Spadina Entrance

The ground-floor level entrance to the 401 Richmond building is located near the intersection of Spadina and Richmond St, next to the Mama’s pizza. When entering from the Spadina entrance, you can take the accessible ramp on the right side of the building entrance that will lead you past the Roastery Coffee Shop. After passing through the door, turn left and continue straight passed the a set of mailboxes. Once you reach the courtyard windows, turn right and continue towards another gallery in the building marked YYZ. When you reach the end of the hall, turn left. The door to Tangled Art Gallery will be on your right. A push button is located to the right of the entrance.

Inside the 401 Richmond Building

If you are walking East down Richmond Street, the first entrance to 401 Richmond Street you will find is the North-East entrance. When you enter the building, you will go down a ramp and into a large open space.

Taking the stairs

If you are taking the stairs, you will find them to your left, beside Darkhorse Coffee. Head up the stairs one flight, to the 1st floor (technically the North-East entrance is on the basement level). Once you are on the first floor, turn left, left again, then right. You will now be in a long hallway with vitrines along the left wall. Walk down this hallway, and through the doorway at the other end. Once through the doorway, turn left, walking down the hallway past the Studio 1,2,3 Early Learning Centre and Trinity Square Video. At the end of the hallways you'll be in a wide open space with a doorway on the right side leading to another hallway. Go through this doorway and walk down. Tangled Art Gallery will be on your right.

Taking the elevator

If you are taking the elevator, go straight from the North-East entrance, past the steps, and down the hall. You will pass through the recycling room, and enter a large open space, where the elevators will be on your left. Use the elevator to head to floor G. When you get out of the elevator, turn right until you come to the end of the hallway. In front of you will be a set of doors leading to Gallery 44, and to your right will be a hallway. Turn right down the hallway. At the end of the hallway will be an open space, with a door to your right. Go through the door to your right, and go down the hallway until you get to Tangled Art Gallery, on your left.

Wait! I’m at a different entrance!

If you are at the North-West corner of the building, there are five steps leading up to the doorway, as well as a ramp.

Once you’re inside, go to your right. There will be a hallway straight ahead, as well as a door to your right, leading to the Roastery coffee shop and mailboxes. Go through the door, then turn left again, the opposite direction from the Roastery. Walk right, left, then right again, following the path of the hallway. Tangled Art Gallery will be on your right.
